QUESTION.—What is thy only comfort in life and death ?

ANSWER.—That I, with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ, who, with His precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil ; and so preserves me, that, without the will of my Heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head ; yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation : and therefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me sincerely willing and ready henceforth to live unto Him.

PRICKETT COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

TENTH and MARKET Sts.,
PHILADELPHIA,

LEADING SCHOOL OF BUSINESS and SHORTHAND

As the instruction is individual, not in classes, students may enroll any time for a full, a partial, or a special course, as may be desired.

This institution attained its high standing through the superiority of the instruction and the unprecedented success attending students in their business engagements.

It is patronized and endorsed by the leading business men of Philadelphia, who make it the Headquarters from which to secure well-trained Book-keepers, Stenographers, Cashiers, Typewriters, Correspondents, etc. This is done without expense to either employer or student.

We hold ourselves responsible for the ability of every young man and woman recommended. We are justified in reposing this confidence in the efficient training of our students, because the demand for them continues to be three-fold greater than the supply.

WHICH SHALL IT BE?

A GLAD New Year or a sad New Year;
O which shall the New Year be?
I cannot tell what it hath in store,
I would that I might foresee;
But God knows well and I need no more:
Is that not enough for me?

A glad New Year or a sad New Year;
What matter if dark or light?
The cloudy pillar will guide by day,
The pillar of fire by night;
With these to lead me upon my way,
How can I but walk aright?

A glad New Year or a sad New Year;
'Twill be as the Lord thinks best.
The times and seasons are all His
Obeying His high behest; [own,
He ruleth all from His loving throne,
And so is my heart at rest.—Sel.

IS LIFE WORTH LIVING?

"Is life worth living?" Yes, so long
As there is wrong to right,
Wail of the weak against the strong,
Or tyranny to fight.

While there is one untrodden track
For intellect or will,

And men are free to think and act,
Life is worth living still.

—Alfred Austin.

ALMANAC FOR 1893.

THE Almanac for the Reformed Church in the United States has reached its thirtieth issue. In these thirty years what a great good it has been to the Church! Year after year it has presented facts and figures that told of the extent and growth of our beloved Church. To compare each issue with the other, will unfold great things for us: how we grew from year to year in ministers, congregations, members, and offerings to the Lord.

The Almanac for 1893 is fully up, if not superior to that of other years, in illustrations and reading matter. The Statistics are full and the Clerical Registers are as complete as possible up to date of issue.

The Almanac should be in every family in the Church. The aid of Pastors, Consistories, Mite and Missionary Societies, is asked in giving it a wide circulation.

REFORMED CHURCH, IRWIN, PA.

THIS church was organized January 1st, 1853, Rev. S. H. Giesy, pastor. Joseph Cort, Esq., was the prime mover in its organization, and was the first-named of the elders. A church building was erected and dedicated June 1st, 1854. A parsonage was built during the pastorate of Rev. W. E. Krebs. It was sold a few years ago.

Since the organization the congregation has had the following pastors: Revs. S. H. Giesy, D. D., T. G. Apple, D. D., L. H. Kefauver, D. D., H. W. Super, D. D., G. H. Johnston, D. D., T. J. Barkley, W. E. Krebs, J. M. Titzel, D. D., A. E. Truxal, D. D., F. Pilgram, and D. A. Souder, the present one.

REFORMED CHURCH, IRWIN, PA.

REV. D. A. SOUDERS, Pastor.

The Synod of Pittsburgh met in this Church, September 28th, 1892.

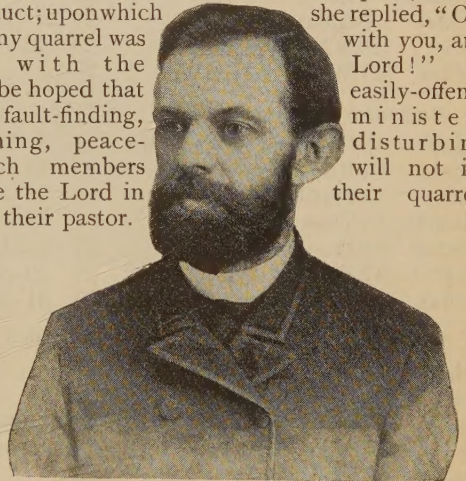

was erected and dedicated August 13th, 1890. It is 75x48 feet, and contains an auditorium 48x52 feet, one lecture-room 24x26 feet, two class rooms and a pastor's study. It cost $10,601.

A new parsonage was built and occupied in 1891, at a cost of $3,500.

NOTHING will make us so charitable and tender of the faults of others as knowing our own.

CHURCH QUARRELS.

THERE are few ministers who have not had a disagreement with some church members, even to the extent of their ceasing to attend worship. They are vexed at the pastor, and avenge themselves by staying away from the preaching. A good old Scotch woman had a different view on the subject. She had quarreled with her pastor about church matters, but to his surprise continued her regular attendance at worship. He expressed gratification, as well as surprise, at her conduct; upon which she replied, "Oh, sir, my quarrel was not with the Lord!" It is to be hoped that easily-offending, fault-finding, blaming, peace-church members will not include the Lord in their quarrels.

REV. D. A. SOUDERS.

ONE'S business is one thing; one's occupation is a different thing. A man may be a clerk, book-keeper, salesman, or jeweler, and all in the jewelry business. A Christian's business is to serve and glorify God; his occupation is to be subservient to that end. His right place is wherever he can do most for the business to which God has called him.

THE man or woman who turns his or her head during the prayer to see who is coming in late, is more interested in this world than the next.

THE church choir that does all the singing, does too much.

Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows in the Reformed Church in U. S.

THIS is the oldest charitable institution of the Reformed Church in this country. It was organized one hundred years ago, and was incorporated by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, March 26th, 1810. Its design is to assist ministers' widow and their families, and also superannuated and disabled ministers themselves, who are members of it, and whose pecuniary resources are not sufficient to give them a living, when no longer able to serve the Church.

There are two classes of members—annual contributing and life members. By paying an initiation fee of five dollars, and thereafter annually three dollars, a minister of our Church becomes the former, and by the payment of sixty-five dollars becomes the latter.

The principal income of the Society, however, is from invested funds and collections in the churches. Collections and donations for immediate use are earnestly solicited. That more attention should be given to this society and its worthy object cannot be disputed. Let it be remembered annually by individuals and congregations.

The officers are W. M. Deatrick, D. D., Mercersburg, Pa., President; E. V. Gerhart, D. D., LL. D., Lancaster, Pa., Vice President; Rev. T. F. Hoffmeier, Middletown, Md., Secretary; Rev. S. S. Miller, St. Petersburg, Pa., Treasurer; and Revs. J. David Miller, Marysville, Pa., and F. F. Bahner, Waynsboro', Pa., Adessors.

"I CAN never do that man any good," said a pastor sorrowfully of one of his members. "His soul is wrapped up in his pocketbook, and I cannot reach it." In that case the soul will grow lean in proportion as the pocketbook grows fat.

St. Thomas Church, Reading, Pa.

HONOR THE CHURCH.

CHURCH members should honor the Church and its institutions. The Church has its faults, but infidels and atheists will point them out and publish them abroad. It is not becoming in Christians to join them in the effort to bring the Church of CHRIST into contempt. Every father has faults, but he would be an ungrateful son who should take pleasure in parading those faults. No man respects the church member who takes pains to discover the things which are wrong in the Church and make them public. The Christian should honor the Church by respecting its discipline, patronizing its educational institutions, familiarizing himself with its history and work, and reading its literature. To ignore these as some do is to cast a reproach on the Church in the sight of the world.

If the world seems cold to you,
Kindle fires to warm it;
Let their comfort hide from view
Winters that deform it,
Hearts as frozen as your own
To the radiance gather,
You will soon forget to moan,
"Ah, the cheerless weather."

—LUCY LARCOM.

CHERISH THE home with infinite tenderness. You cannot love it too much, nor give it too much time and thought. Remember, life has nothing better to offer you; it is the climax and crown of God's gifts. Make every day of life in it rich and sweet. It will not last long. See to it that you plant no seeds of bitter memory; that there be no neglect and no harshness to haunt you in after years.

THIRD STREET REFORMED CHURCH, EASTON, PA.

"THE German Reformed Church at the Forks of the Delaware," now known by the name of "Third Street Reformed Church, Easton," was organized about the year 1745, and was visited by Schlatter between 1747 and 1750. The church building as seen in the engraving, with the exception of the steeple and vestibule, was erected in 1776. A important treaty with the Indians by U. S. Commissioners was held in this building 1777. At this treaty, the Hon. Geo. Taylor presided, and Thomas Paine was Secretary. The building was used as a hospital after the battles of Brooklyn and Brandywine, and was favored with the presence of Washington. The building was enlarged in 1832, and remodeled in 1886.

The first regular pastor was the Rev. Dr. Caspar D. Weyberg, 1763. Then came the following pastors: Rev. Frederick L. Henop, 1766; Rev. ——— Pithan, 1769–71; Rev. Wm. Ingold, 1776–86; Rev. Lebrecht F. Hermann, D. D., 1786–90; Rev. Christian Ludwig Becker, D. D., 1793–95; Rev. Thomas Pomp, 1796–1852. The first English pastor was Rev. Bernard C. Wolff, D. D., 1832–45. Then followed Rev. J. H. A. Bomberger, D. D., 1845–54; Rev. John Beck, D. D., 1854–77;

Rev. Thos. C. Porter, D. D., 1877–84; Rev. H. M. Kieffer, D. D., 1884—date.

The building is the oldest church in Easton, and the only public building of revolutionary days still standing.

WORSHIPPERS do not make enough of the devotional part of public worship. They go to church for the sermon. They speak of the prayers, and readings as "preliminary exercises," and they are only too often "preliminary formal observations," a direct worship should hold no secondary place in the services of the sanctuary. Worship the Lord in spirit and in truth.

CALVARY.

UNDER an Eastern sky,
Amid a rabble's cry,
A Man went forth to die
For me.

Thorn-crowned His blessed head,
Blood-stained His every tread;
Cross-laden, on He sped,
For me.

Pierced glow His hands and feet,
Three hours o'er Him beat
Fierce rays of noon-tide heat
For me.

Thus wert Thou made all mine:
Lord, make me wholly Thine:
Grant grace and strength divine
To me.

In thought and word and deed
Thy will to do. Oh, lead
My soul, e'en though it bleed,
To Thee.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

THE Board of Foreign Missions at present is composed of the following officers and members:

Clement Z. Weiser, D. D., President; Nicholas Gehr, D. D., Vice-President; S. N. Callender, D. D., Secretary; Benjamin Bausman, D. D.; Rev. A. R. Bartholomew; Jacob Dahlman, D. D.; Rev. John H. Prugh; P. Greeding, D. D.; Elders, Rudolph F. Kelker; Benjamin Kuhns; Goldsboro S. Griffith; Joseph L. Lemberger, Treasurer, Lebanon, Pa.

The Missionaries, Revs. M. Oshikawa, W. E. Hoy, D. B. Schneder and the two Misses Poorbaugh, remain laboring faithfully and successfully at their posts. Rev. J. P. Moore, D. D., returned to America, on furlough, in September, 1891, and is still in this country visiting the congregations in the interest of the work in which he has shown himself so successful a laborer. In October, 1881, Miss Mary C. Hollowell, of Chambersburg, Pa., was sent out to assist the Misses Poorbaugh, in the Girls' School. Her salary is provided for by the Woman's Missionary Society, G. S. Rev. Henry K. Miller, of Reading, Pa., was sent as an additional Missionary in September last. He, as well as all of our Missionaries, is most affectionately commended to the prayers and liberal support of the Church.

The Theological Training School and the Girls' School are moving prosperously forward. The late statistics show one hundred and nineteen scholars in the former, and forty-one in the latter. A larger number could be secured were the means at hand for their instruction and support. The Theological Seminary Building has been completed and occupied at a cost of $7,356.25. A debt of several thousand dollar, remains upon it which should be liquidated.

The last year the expenses of the Mission have been increased by sending out the additional Missionary.

The work has been widening, and additional workers are imperatively wanted, if our advancement be not seriously retarded.

The contributions of the home Church have not kept pace with the growing necessities of the work, and the Board is embarrassed in its endeavors to avoid a retrograde movement. In this struggle a burdensome debt has been incurred, and the Church is most earnestly besought to enlarge its contributions, that the promising Providential openings now inviting us to advance, may be improved.

TO BE a good preacher one must have something to impart and the power to properly present it. He must be a full man—full of truth and full of grace. He must both instruct and move. Men may vary in the preaching gift, but study and practice develop it. Intellect and heart should more and more come into the fullest play in the pulpit. People love a growing preacher. He who is always taking in and giving out for their advantage has the staying quality which makes the attractive and prolonged pastorate.

REFORMED CHURCH, MARTINSBURG, W. VA.

JOHN A. HOFFHEINS, D. D., Pastor.

The Synod of the Potomac met in this Church, October 11, 1892.

REFORMED CHURCH, MARTINSBURG, W. VA.

THIS is an old Church—how old is not exactly known. It is supposed to have been organized before the opening of the present century. It has had up to the present ten pastors; the average length of their pastorates has been about ten years.

The following is the list: Rev. George Adam Gueting, Rev. Jonathan Rahauer, Rev. Lewis Mayer, D. D., Rev. Samuel Helfenstein, Jr., Rev. Jacob Beecher, Rev. Robert Douglas, Rev. Daniel G. Bragonier, Rev. William D. Lefevre, Rev. Stephen K. Kremer, Rev. John A. Hoffheins, D. D. The last has been pastor for the past seventeen years. In 1876, the number of members in the congregation was 176, at present it is 325. The congregation has not only made progress in numbers but also in its offerings to benevolence.

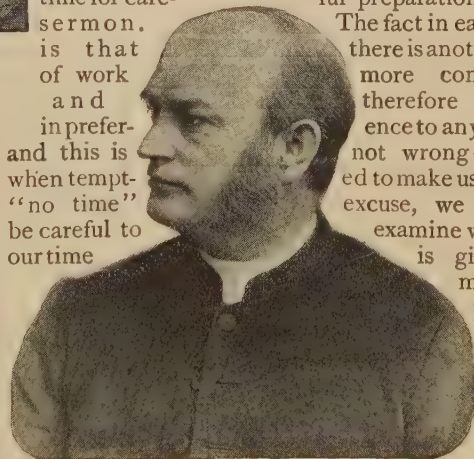

The Missionary Guardian.

THIS Magazine is for our whole Church. It is devoted to the interest of Missions, Home and Foreign, and is under the Editorial supervision of the Boards of the Church, with Rev. A. C. Whitmer, as Editor, with the following assistants: D. S. Fouse, D. D., and S. N. Callender, D. D. It contains twenty-four pages, and is issued monthly at 50 cents a year, cash in advance. It is published by the Reformed Church Publication House, 907 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Every one interested in Missions should be a subscriber. The Missionary Societies of the Church should take an active part in its circulation. Send to the publishers for specimen copies. Encourage this new enterprise in behalf of the great work of Missions.

WE find time for what we most want to do. A preacher claims that he has no time for pastoral work, and a pastor laments his lack of time for careful preparation of his sermon. The fact in each case is that there is another line of work more congenial, and therefore chosen by him, than any other; and this is not wrong—only when tempted to make use of the excuse, we should examine whether it is given to our time more important work than that which we reject.

JOHN A. HOFFHEINS, D. D.

THERE is one day in the week to go to church, and seven to love thy neighbor as thyself.

PRAY for your pastor.

BENEFICIARY EDUCATION.

THE Church has her Boards of Education, whose duty it is to receive funds and devote them toward aiding pious young men in their preparation for the Gospel Ministry.

Each of the Synods has its Board. That of the Eastern Synod is known as the Parent Board.

Funds are needed by all of them. Were large amounts at their command, the number of young men in our institutions, preparing for the ministry, would be much greater.

The attention of those who would thus further the cause of Christ, by giving of their means with which the Lord has prospered them, is called to this sacred cause, committed to the several Boards of Education. The addresses of the several Treasurers can be found under the head—WHERE TO SEND CHURCH MONEY.

JOHN M. SCHICK, D. D.,
Stated Clerk of the Synod of Pittsburgh, and Pastor of Shenango Charge, Mercer Co., Pa.

IT is from the people who love their Church for her faith, and for what the Church stands, that the work of missions and education receive their most liberal and constant support. Those who are so fascinated with "broad" ideas that they have no particular attachment to the Church to which they belong, never do much for the kingdom. They are usually iconoclastic. They are destructive in criticism, and not constructive in action.

DON'T be on the lookout to find where people are wrong. Try to find out where they are right. They are not right if they sneer, or if they are violent. Nor are we, either.

THE man that would be truly rich must not increase his fortune, but retrench his appetites.

The Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip.

This organization, composed of young men, starting in the Reformed Church, has now regular branches in the Dutch Reformed, Presbyterian and Congregational Churches. Each of the denominations has an Executive Council which are united in a Federal Council.

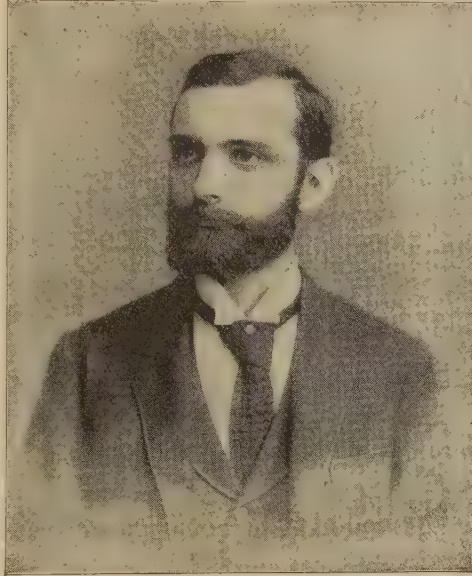

The Brotherhood has at present eighty-two chapters; seventy-four of them are now active. There is every prospect the number will increase year by year.

The duties of the members are to keep the Rule of Prayer and the Rule of Service. The former is to pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom among young men and the blessing of God upon the Brotherhood. The latter is to make an earnest effort each week to bring at least one young man within the hearing of the Gospel, either at church services, Bible class or prayer meeting.

The Fourth Convention of the Brotherhood was held in Bethlehem, Pa., September 9-11. It was well attended. Rev. Rufus W. Miller, founder of the Brotherhood, is President of the Executive Council.

No church is a true church which has not the missionary spirit, which does not go out into the lanes and byways, and which does not seek to bring men and women under its influence by carrying its Gospel to them when they do not come to it. The church is not to be a mere passive agency in the community; its work against ignorance, superstition, vice and crime must be earnestly aggressive if it is to be a beacon light instead of a dark lantern.—Christian Register.

Nor how little, but how much can you do for Christ and His Church.

REV. HENRY K. MILLER.

The new Missionary to Sendai, Japan.

Seven Good Days.

Sunday's hours are all the Lord's,
Holy rest the day affords.

Monday should our work begin,
Tuesday find us wiring in.

All through Wednesday persevere.
Thursday work and sing with cheer.

Friday still with zeal engage.

Saturday home with all our wage.

Grace and peace all through the seven,

Make the week a bit of heaven.

Living Epistles.

ALL around us are people who never go to church, who never hear the Gospel, preached; who will not read the word of God, but they will read us. They can't help doing that. They couldn't understand the Bible if they did read it, but they can understand us. If Christ is in our lives, they will be sure to see Him, and be drawn to Him. We are living epistles that those about us will be sure to see and read. How important then, that we should not have any blots on the pages we present to the world! Let us try to make our lives pure.

THE reason why some churches and institutions do not receive large gifts is because they are beggars. Large gifts are never given to beggars. They do not deserve them. The individual, or church, or institution that appropriates to itself and practices the doctrine that it is more blessed to give than to receive, will after all receive most—as it deserves to. "He that loseth his life for my sake shall find it."

GOOD resolutions are beautiful to look upon, but they are like the beautiful blossoms upon the trees that fill the air with their delicious fragrance for a few days only—liable to be blown off by the first strong wind. Good resolutions need deep purposes to sustain them, lest the winds of temptation scatter the blossoms of hope.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE consists of the Pres't, V.-Pres't, Sect'y, J. J. Leberman, D. D., and Elder C. M. Boush.

The English missions are now under the General Board, those of the Bi-Synodic Board having been transferred April 19, 1892. The Synodical Boards are auxiliary or advisory to the General Board. Rev. A. C. Whitmer is Superintendent of the missions within the bounds of the Eastern and Potomac Synods, and moneys are to be sent to the Treasurer, J. J. Nissley. Eight missions became self-supporting, six were added. There are at present ninety missions, including the Harbor Mission, on the roll. At several important points missions will be established during the present year.

The Hungarian work at and around Cleveland, O., and Pittsburg, Pa., is being successfully pushed forward. Pastors Jurany and Kovacs are the right men for it and the Church should provide liberally for its support. Another missionary is necessary.

During the past year there was received from the church $33,500.00, for the coming year there will be needed $36,000, with $2,200 for the Hungarian work.

Church extension should be encouraged. Up to the present date 1,100 five dollar subscriptions have been received. More are needed. Special building funds of $500 will help the Board to establish missions in our cities. Help all these.

REV. J. W. MEMINGER, Pastor.

The Eastern Synod met in this Church, October 19th, 1892.

Meminger, installed 1887. Its present membership is 550, having doubled in numbers during the past five years. The Sunday School numbers over 450. The congregation is therefore in a highly prosperous condition.

TO have each day the things I wish
Lord, seemeth best to me!
But not to have some things I wish
Lord, seemeth best to Thee.

Henceforth, then, let Thy will be done!
Though mine, O God, be crossed;
'T is good to see my plans o'erthrown,
Myself in Thee all lost.

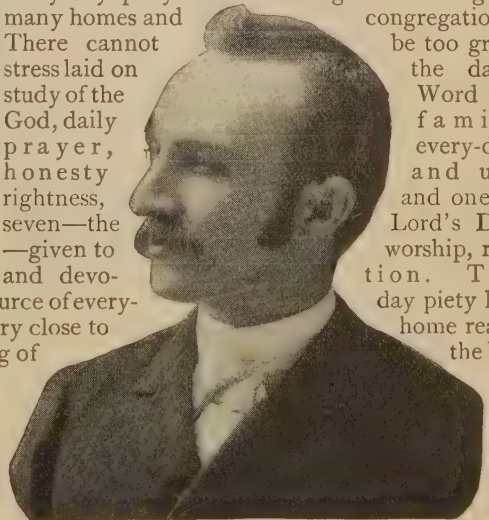

LESSON HELPS FOR OUR SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

THE lesson helps are now published under the auspices of the Sunday School Board of the General Synod. The same lessons and comments are used all over the Church, East and West, North and South. There is a great improvement in them over those formerly published. They consequently are calculated to aid greatly, teachers and scholars, in the study of their lessons. Teachers have the Heidelberg Teacher for their use.

The large scholars have the Scholars' Quarterly and the Advanced Lesson Papers, whilst the infant scholars have the Primary Lesson Paper for their use.

The comments upon the lessons are from the standpoint of the Church, and consequently the Helps containing them are the only proper ones for Sunday Schools of the Reformed Church to use. This should claim the attention of officers of the Sunday Schools of the Church. Reformed Schools should use nothing else.

SOMEHOW the term "piety" has lost its former prominence. A revival of old-fashioned every-day piety would be a great blessing to many homes and congregations. There cannot be too great stress laid on the daily study of the Word of God, daily prayer, honesty, rightness, seven—the—given to and devotion. The source of every-very close to ing of CHURCH PAPERS.

NO INTELLIGENT church-member can now afford to dispense with the paper which keeps him posted in regard to the proceedings of our Classes and Synods, the condition of our colleges and theological seminaries, the organization of new congregations and the erection of new houses of worship, the settlement of new pastors, the work of our Church committees, the new books best worth reading, the progress of home and foreign missions, the actual condition of religion in all parts of the world, the new phases of unbelief by which it is assailed, the hindrances to its progress, whether from internal or external foes, and the methods by which it may be extended to the ends of the earth.

“WE live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; in feelings, not in figures on dial; we should count time by heart throbs. He most lives who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best.”

A PURE HOME.

THERE is nothing on earth for which one ought to be more thankful than for having been brought up in the atmosphere of a pure home. Such a home may be narrow, and even hard. It may be deficient in material comforts, and utterly lack the graceful amenities that lend a charm to human life; but it has in it the forces on which great characters are nurtured. One—a man as sturdy as a forest oak—once said: “I was the son of poor parents, and from my youth up was inured to self-denial and hardship; but I do not remember ever to have heard a word from the lips of either my father or my mother that was not as chaste as the driven snow.” Better such a recollection as that than an inheritance of millions in money.

Remember these at Christmas time.

AMID all your Christmas joys do not forget the poor and suffering. Lay aside your offerings for the Infant Saviour, a treasure in Heaven, which can never be taken away.

CHRIST always gives the best of the wine at the last of the feast; Satan reverses this order. The man who serves Satan gets his sweetest pleasures at the beginning. With him things grow worse as he goes on, and when the end comes, it is the blackness of darkness forever. It is only in Christ that the end is better than the beginning.

REV. L. F. ZINKHAN,

General Agent of Maryland Prisoners' Aid Association.

Christ, Our King.

Hear them tell the wondrous story,
Hear them chant in hymns of joy;
Glory, in the highest! Glory!
Glory be to God most high!

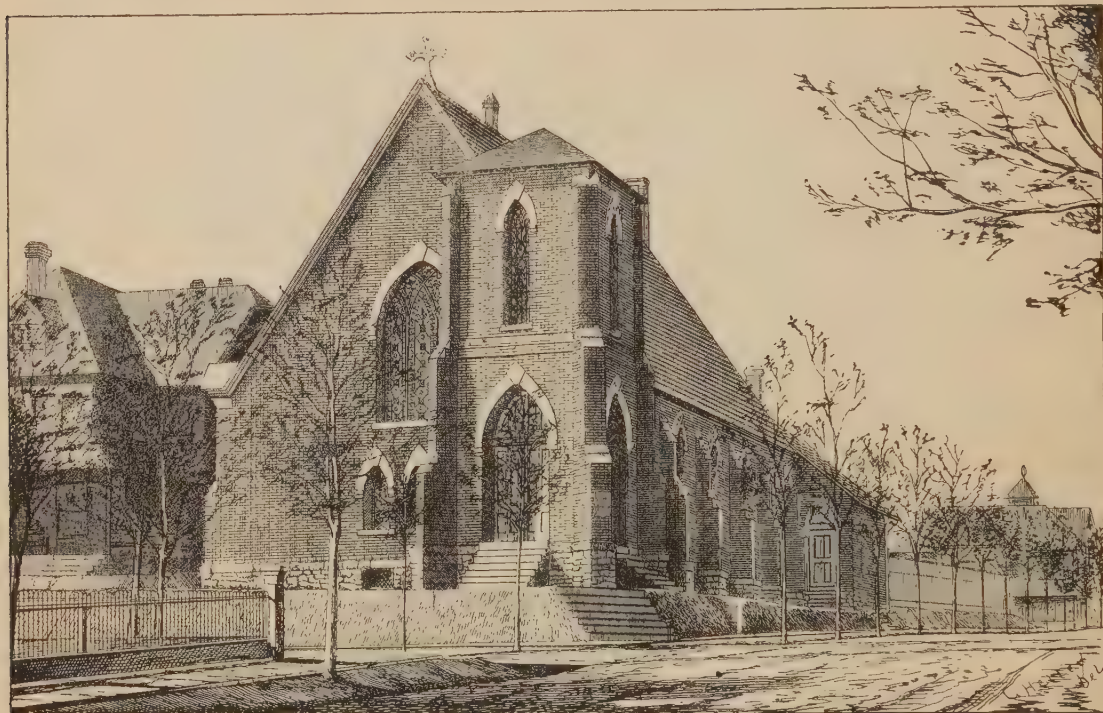

What good news the angels bring!
What glad tidings of our King!
Christ the Lord is born to-day!
Christ, who takes our sins away.

Joyful, all ye nations, rise;
Join the triumphs of the skies,
With the angelic host proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."

WHAT do you talk about most? — the weather? dress? your pains and aches? your domestic trials? your business? your housekeeping? your studies? your recreations? or your soul? Did you ever observe how little real religious (i. e., saving, profiting, edifying) talk there is, talk about trifles in comparison to the oceans of light as air?

As the last day, last hour, last minute of the dying year comes and goes, what a solemn period in life it should be to every one!

REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES,
LANCASTER, PA.

—♦♦—FOUNDED AT CARLISLE, MARCH, 1825—♦♦—

THE Institution is conducted under the supervision and direction of the three (English) Eastern Synods: The Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, organized in 1747; the Synod of Pittsburgh, organized in 1870; and the Synod of the Potomac, organized in 1873.

Its financial affairs are managed by a Board of Trustees consisting of EIGHTEEN Elders or Laymen. Instruction and discipline are subject to the authority and oversight of a Board of Visitors, consisting of TWELVE ministers. The Visitors and Trustees are chosen from the ministers and members of the three Synods.

The Course of Instruction embraces three years, and includes all the branches of a complete education for the Christian ministry. The confessional standard of doctrine is the Heidelberg Catechism.

The Seminary year begins on the first Thursday of September. Boarding can be obtained at $3.50 per week. For further information, address the President of the Faculty.

NEW IDEAS FOR RAISING MONEY.

Have sent them into twenty-eight States, to Canada and to England and Scotland. They have helped to raise thousands of dollars. Easy way to raise money for an Organ, Library or Singing Books.

A larger size of the barrels, 3 inches high and 2½ inches in diameter, for Bible Classes. This size by express or freight, five cents each; by mail, eight cents. When only a few are desired it will be much cheaper to have them sent by mail. Also for the schools which have used the barrels, we have a WOODEN EGG; it is about the size of a Goose Egg. The Eggs will be sent by express or freight at three cents each, or by mail at five cents each. Samples of the three articles by mail for fifteen cents.

ALLENTOWN FEMALE COLLEGE.

AN institution under the care of the East Pennsylvania and Lehigh Classes, and endorsed by the Synod of the Reformed Church. Extensive and costly improvements have been recently made. A front addition of brick, four stories high, has been built. The entire building has been refitted in the most comfortable and attractive manner. It is lighted by gas, heated by steam throughout, and supplied with bath-rooms containing all the modern comforts. It is encircled by a broad veranda, surrounded by a lawn of two acres, and shaded by stately trees. The prospect in the rear of the College is like a woodland scene, and although located in a busy city, it is virtually a rural home.

Eight teachers devote their attention exclusively to the interests of the Institution. All the branches are taught, including French, Elocution, Painting and Music. The moral and spiritual welfare of the pupils will be an object of special care.

Contributions for benefit of Institution should be addressed to Chas. H. Ruhe, Allentown, Pa.

Will pastors please call the attention of their people to this worthy institution?

PROF. DILL'S BALM OF LIFE...... THE GREAT PAIN EXPELLER.

1 Drop cures Toothache; 3 Drops cures Croup immediately; 1 Dose cures Cold on Kidneys or Bowels; 1 Dose cures Sick Headache; 1 Dose cures Cramps; 1 Dose relieves Dyspepsia or Heart.

It has saved many lives from Croup and Diphtheria at the Children's Home, 41st and Baring Streets, Philadelphia. Many children were stricken down with Diphtheria, but every one was cured by the BALM OF LIFE. Their photographs, in a large frame, were sent to me as a token of gratitude, which hangs up in our laboratory, an evidence of its value. The Home has used it for years, to the relief of little sufferers, with wonderful success.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR NEURALGIA, AND HAS CURED THOUSANDS OF RHEUMATISM.

PROF. W. W. DILL:—I was greatly afflicted with Rheumatism and Kidney Complaint, suffering the most severe pain; limbs numb, compelled to urinate every few minutes in great distress. Your BALM OF LIFE has cured me of both Rheumatism and Kidney trouble. I feel like a new man. Wonderful results.

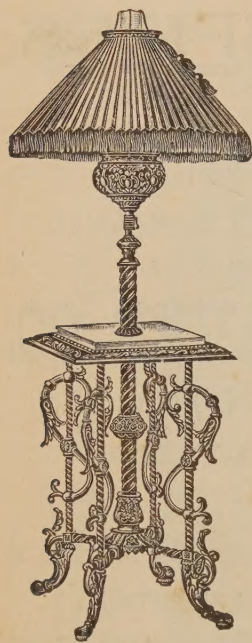

W. H. COOPER, Justice of Peace, Connellsville, Pa.

Its effect is marvelous upon the whole human system; expelling so promptly after physicians and all else have failed to relieve the terrible suffering and pains all are subject to, and at any moment. There is not a person or family on earth that does not need it, and in which it would be worth ten times its cost. If you or your children are taken with severe pain at midnight, in it you have almost a sure relief; and if directions are followed, and only common sense used in care or nursing, it will do more than any physician can do for what it is recommended. Do not wait until one of your family is dying with pain, but get it immediately, and you will never be without it after you see the results.
